MONESSEN IS AGAIN FLOODED BY HEAVY MONDAY NIGHT STORM

Cellars Filled With Water and Streets Piled High with Mud and Debris

STREET CAR TRAFFIC TIED UP

The storm of Monday night brought another flood to Monessen, and as a consequence a large number of cellars of business houses and homes in the lower part of that town were filled with water and debris, while the streets were choked with mud which had been washed down from the hillsides.

At one point, at the corner of Donner and Rostraver avenue, in the lower part of the city, the water came rushing down the steep hilliside with such force as to wash the bricks from the streets making them practically impassable. The street car system was completely tied up on account of the large amount of debris which had been deposited on the tracks by the heavy rain, and it will require a great deal of work on the part of the street car company to get the line back in shape. In the upper end of the town, near Twelfth street, the mud was piled a foot high on the tracks and it will take some time to clear away this accumulation. The tracks near the old Rostraver mine are reported in bad shape, the ballast being washed from under the ties, while at a point a short distance above the rails were covered with dirt and debris from the hill. It may be some time before normal street car traffic will be restored to Belle Vernon points owing to the immense amount of work which will necessary to put the tracks back in shape.

Monessen, however, seems to be the worst-hit town in this section of the valley. Conditions this morning were a repetition of those of a few weeks ago, when a heavy rain caused so much trouble to merchants and residents. The town had only about recovered from the former storm when it suffered from the heavy downpour of last night. It means a loss of several thousand dollars to the merchants and the citizens of that community, which added to the former losses makes quite a heavy buden for the community to bear.

Miss Mary Riile.

Miss Mary Riile died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Riile, 225 Fallowfield avenue, Monday evening at 10 o'clock, aged 16 years. Funeral from Mother of Sorrows church Wednesday morninng with interment to follow in Calvary cemetery.

The Bible School of the First Christian church will picnic at Oakland park Wednesday July 16th. Special car will leave Lock Four at 8:40 a. m. Charleroi at 8:50 a. m. Parents are urged to send children on special car. The games will begin at 10 o'clock. 34-t1-*

ALUMNI PLEDGE TO SUPPORT INSTITUTION

At a meeting of alumni of the Washington Seminary, held at Washington Saturday evening last, an organization was formed having as its object the enlistment of every former student as a continual contributor to the support of the institution. The proposed capital of the new organization is $100,000 in shares with par value of $100. Over fifty shares have already been subscribed for.

DONORA SUFFERS FROM THE STORM

Donora suffered considerably from the storm of last night, the streets being badly washed, while street car traffic had to be abandoned until the tracks were cleared of heavy deposits of debris which had been washed down from the hillsides. The home of Felix Carpi, in that town, was struck by lightning and the roof badly damaged. Two men who were in one of the upstairs rooms were severely shocked, but not dangerously hurt. The brick road between Webster and Monessen is also reported closed on account of heavy landslides which occurred during the night, due to the heavy rainfall.

TWO ADDITIONAL CARS RETURNED

Two additional automobiles, both of them Ford turing cars, were turned over to Chief Albright on Tuesday making a total of seven which are now being held by the local police department, and all of which were stolen from their original owners. The police have trace of at least three more which they expect to have returned before the present campaign closes, and it may be that race will be obtained of others. In the meantime the two men arrested, Jennings and Allen, are being held at the local police station, awaiting further developments. It is expected that charges will be made against them, with a possibility of their cases going before the August term of criminal court.

Mrs. Anna Estenfelder has returned home from Latrobe, where she visited her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Dunn, nee Miss Tena Estenfelder.

Announce Schedule of Dates For the Coming School Term

Superintendent Pollock announces that the next term of the Charleroi public schools will open on Monday, September 1st. There will be two days vacation at Thanksgiving time, while the holiday vacation will begin December 19, and continuing until January 5th. Two days' vacation will be observed at Easter time, and the term will close on the 27th of May. This schedule of course depends upon the ability of the schools to remain in session without interruption from epidemics or other causes.

The annual institute will be held in Charleroi, beginning Monday, August 25th and continuing until the 29th inclusive. A splendid array of talent has been secured for this session of the Institute, which will be held in Charleroi. Dr. Conwell of Philadelphia being one of the strong attractions. Other announcements regarding theprogram now being prepared will be made in the near future.

THE FIRST BOAT IN MANY YEARS

For many years boat building was one of the industries of Belle Vernon, but with the advent of railroads on both sides of the river the demand for boats lessened and most of the boat yards of the valley were abandoned.

For some weeks past C. L. Chester, of Belle Vernon, has been at work with a few men building for himself a pleasure boat, utilizing the site of the old Speers boat yard below the town. where the Polly South was launched in 1858, and where in subsequent years many additioonal boats were fashioned and launched for trades on lower rivers. This new boat is almost ready to be launched, and many of the older residents of Belle Vernon will recall that in the old days when a boat was to besent into the river it was made a gala occasion when the banks were lined with spectators and all that could secure permission rode on the deck whes the boat was launched. No doubt Mr. Chester could secure quite an audience for his launching if the date were known, while there are many who would like to take the ride when the boat makes the plunge.

TRACKS FLOODED BY THE HEAVY STORM

The heavy storm of last night flooded the tracks of the Pittsburg & Charleroi interurban line at a number of places annd caused considerable delay in the running of cars this morning. The worst places were reported on Mingo creek near the plant of the Riverview Distilling company, at Factory street, Monongahela, Monessen bridge entrance and at Twelfth street, Donora Southbound cars were over an hour late, while the Donora service was so badly disarranged that workmen had to use the trains to reach their work. Shortly after 8 o'clock, however. Superintendent Yost had the schedule going in good shape, and the cars running on their usual time.

HUNDREDS TURN TO STUDY OF SCIENCE

Pittsburg, Pa., July 14—Statistics published today by the summer school of the University of Pittsburg verify the early predictions of educators that the nation's war experiences would turn hundreds of students to the study of sciences in the college curricula. Pitt authorities announce that at least one-third of the total enrolment of the summer school is composed of students specializing in chemistry, physics and biology. Many high school teachers from Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia are spending ther summer vacation at Pittsburg in the study of physcs and chemistry to meet the demand for those subjects which the opening of the high schools in the fall will bring about. Score of other subjects in thecourse of tudy are receivinng due attention but the demand for the sciences is impredecented.

The general University lectures which are given at 11 a. m. daily by men of national prominence are being exceedingly well atteded by both the student body and the general public.

DONORA MILLS ADOPT CENTRAL SYSTEM IN EMPLOYING LABOR

Better Results Both For Men and Factory Thus Obtained

MODIFICATION OF FORD PLAN

Although the Donora mills are the last units of the United States Steel Corporation to install a centralized employment system, the new plan of employment management and welfare work now being conducted under the direction of Capt. Walter Scott is proving immensely popular. Through this system, which has been in operation for some time, men for all departments of the mills are taken care of at themain gates of the Wire Works, located at the foot of Sixth street. Donora, where commodious quarters and an employment office have been fitted up.

There it is that a careful check is kept on all new employes entering the mills, and where enough data is obtained to enable the mill authorities to look after the personal interest of each man entering the mills. The system is copied to a great extent after that first adopted in he Ford facories at Detroit, Michigan.

As far as possible each man applying for work is placed in that department in which it is believed he will be most interested and the most efficient. In this way the progress of each man in the mills can be reported and watched carefully for his own interest and the interest of the company.

UNIONTOWN TO WELCOME SOLDIERS THIS WEEK

A three-day celebration in honor of the home-coming of veterans of the world war will be held in Uniontown Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. A splendid program has been arranged for each day of the celebration. the final day being featured by automobile racing at the speedway near Hopwood. During this celebration the memorial tablet on the court house lawn, containing 6,000 names of Fayette county soldiers will be dedicated.

KNIGHTS TO HOLD A UNITED OUTING

What is expected to be one of the largest outings of the season will be held at Eldora Park on Wednesday. July 16, by three Councils of the Knights of Columbus of Donora, Monessen and Charleroi, which have united in the undertaking to make the event a notable one. Cyril C. Schwerha, of Monessen, is chairman of the general committee, and has announced a program of sports for men, women and children. One of the big events of the day will be a tug of war between the Donora and Monessen Councils, the winner to pull against the Charleroi council. All the promoters ask is weather suitable for outdoor meetings and they promise one of the greatest assemblies seen at Eldora in years.

STORM WAS HEAVY IN PIGEON CREEK VALLEY

The storm of last night was quite heavy in the Pigeon creek valley, the greatest damage being done to growing crops. Some damage was also done to the roads.w hich were overowed in a number of places. Dry Run was also flooded and a small coal tipple owned by Charles Bentley was washed away. On Mingo the storm was also severe, with damage to crops and roads, with here and there a tree blown down. The greatest damage, however, will be to crops.

The New York Times expresses the hope that Carranza government will by its course "avert resolute action by the United States in defense of the citizens of Mexico." In these days of watchful waiting there is no trouble at all averting any action of that kind, as the record of the past six years clearly demonstrate.

The bolsheviki were the first to sign a peace treaty and the last to get peace. If anybody should ever concentrate on them and whip them, we favor that instead of imposing an indemnity, a universal bath, shave and haircut be proclaimed in Russia.

ARRANGE PROGRAM FOR M. E. PICNIC

The picnic committee of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school met last night and arranged a program of sports for the picnic to be held on Thursday at Oakland Park. From the character off this program all those who attend should have a good time. The first special car will leave at 1:10 p. m., and the second special at 5:10 for the benefit of those who desire to go out in the evening. A special committee on transportation to look after the children has been appointed and will be on duty during the afternoon. With good weather a splendid time is promised to all.

James H. Manon, wife and daughter Bess, of near Washington, Pa., and Dr. W. A. Manor and wife of Canonsburg. were over Monday callers at the home of Dr. Manon.

TOO MANY DEFECTS

The discussion of the league of nations has already disclosed so many defects that even the most enthusiastic advocates are beginning to lose faith in its value as a bringer of universal peace and international good will. Certain provisions reflect this faith for the nations which are show no signs of entrusting their most sacred interests to its keeping. Even the United States, which particularly lays claim to a spirit of altruism, and which takes especial pride in the contributions it has made to the cause of arbritration, declines to submit the future of the Monroe doctrine to the league. France discovers that the league furnishes no adequate protection against another German onslaught, and asks for a specific pledge af assistance from Great Britain and the United States. Italy has refused point blank to submit the Fiume dispute to its decision, while Japan's behavior in the matter of Shantung is hardly in keeping with its spirit. It is consequently not surprising that many hasty critics have concluded, from all these manifestations of distrust, that the league is dead before it is born, and that the statesmen of Versailles, while reaping the practical fruits of victory, are merely giving lip service to the cause of peace and international fraternity.—World's Work.

THE FOOD QUESTION

Prospects for unlocking the food that the government has warehoused improve, says the New York Tribune. Congress is on the job. Food, much of which is perishable, to the value of hundreds of millions, is kept away from the market by the war department: Not until May 1 did the department, although knowing the army would soon be down to 500,000 men, take action toward disposing of its surplus. But it ought to sell and at the same time to keep the food from the market—something of course which could not be done. So it did not sell.

No less than $100,000,000 in canned goods is in government possession, with 60,000,000 pounds of bacon and other goods in proportion. The amazing fact is brought out that in the purchases to feed Europe new purchases were made at the new level of high prices, instead of using surplus army supplies.

The American people, struggling to make ends meet, are entitled to a chance to buy this food. The interest of no group of traders should be put above that of the masses of the people. No one accuses the war department of wrong intentions, but its food policy is extraordinary.

AUTO STEALING

Revelations bringing to light the actions of a couple of residents of an adjoining town, who evidently for some time past have been in the business of appropriating other people's automobiles, show that surprises are continually springing up to confront us and to a certain extent to undermine our confidence in human nature.

The men under arrest have heretofore borne a good reputation of honesty and integrity, standing before their fellow citizens as residents of good repute, but now come revelations which cause them to be looked upon as those who have been attempting to better their financial condition by taking other people's property.

Automobile thefts have been numerous of late, many having been taken from residents of Charleroi as well as of the surrounding towns. But the arrests the local police made on Saturday may have a tendency to discourage such efforts not alone on the part of the prisoners, but likewise on the part of those who might betempted to enter the same calling.

In this respect the police of Charleroi are to be commended for the fine work they did in ferreting out the offenders and placing them behind the bars, at thesame time securing so many machines that had been taken from their rightful owners.

On Wednesday those of our citizens who wish to take part in the coming primary should see to it that they are properly registered, that they may be able to vote their party preference. It will be too late to do tnison the 16th of September. Citizens ought to remember the confusion of two years ago when so many lost their votes because they were not properly registered. Do not let the same thing occur again.

The entrance of at least four and possibly five candidates into the arena for the office of orphans' court judge, established in Washington county, is going to make the present campaign one of the most interesting in years. Not alone this high office, but other positions in the court house make the politicians an active set of citizens.

The Georgia legislature after inviting President Wilson to speak before the body on the league of nations, defeated a resolution to ask Senator Reed to present the other side by a vote of 84 to 54. The Georgia Democratic junkers are constitutionally opposed to permitting the presentation of more than one side of any question.

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR SECRETARIES

Eagles Mere Park, July 15.1919—Yesterday more than two hundred men and a smaller number of women gathered here for the fifth annual session of the Summer School of Community Leadership conducted by the American City Bureau of New York. The purpose of this School is to give instruction in the principles of practical Chamber of Commerce management. The School is an outcome of the extensive development of Chambers of Commerce throughout this continent, and the demand for trained men to manage them.

Thirty-one states, the District of Columbia, five Canadian provinces and the Panama Canal Zone will be represented at the School More than half of the students are already engaged in Chamber of Commerce work. The others are engaged in allied activities or are contemplating entering Chamber of Commerce work.

The program includes addresses by Howard Strong, Secretary of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce; Chesley R. Perry, Secretary of the International Association of Rotary Clubs; Lucius E. Wilson, Vice President of the American City Bureau (the man who directed the movement that gave Dayton its present commission-manager form of government) Prof. Arthur R. Blanchard, President of the American Road Builders' Association, and of the National Highwty Traffic Association; Hon. Daniel A. Reed; Jas. T. Begg and many others of similar standing.

This is the fifth annual session of the School and is the biggest affair of its kind ever held.

LOST ALL HIS MONEY ON HONEYMOON TRIP

A man and wife from Pricedale, whose names are not given, who spent the Fourth at Eldora Park, lost all the cash they had with them, out of which they had expected to enjoy the various entertainments offered. The outing was the first they had taken since they were married and was, they said, their honeymoon trip. The man did not know whether his pocket had been picked, or whether he had lost the purse, but they found it in searching the grounds thrown over the hill, empty. The purse contained between $35 and $40.
